¹ And now, brothers and sisters, we want you to know about the grace that God has given the Macedonian churches. ² In the midst of a very severe trial, their overflowing joy and their extreme poverty welled up in rich generosity.

II CORINTHIANS 8:1-5

³ For I testify that they gave as much as they were able, and even beyond their ability. Entirely on their own, ⁴they urgently pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this service to the Lord's people.

II CORINTHIANS 8:1-5

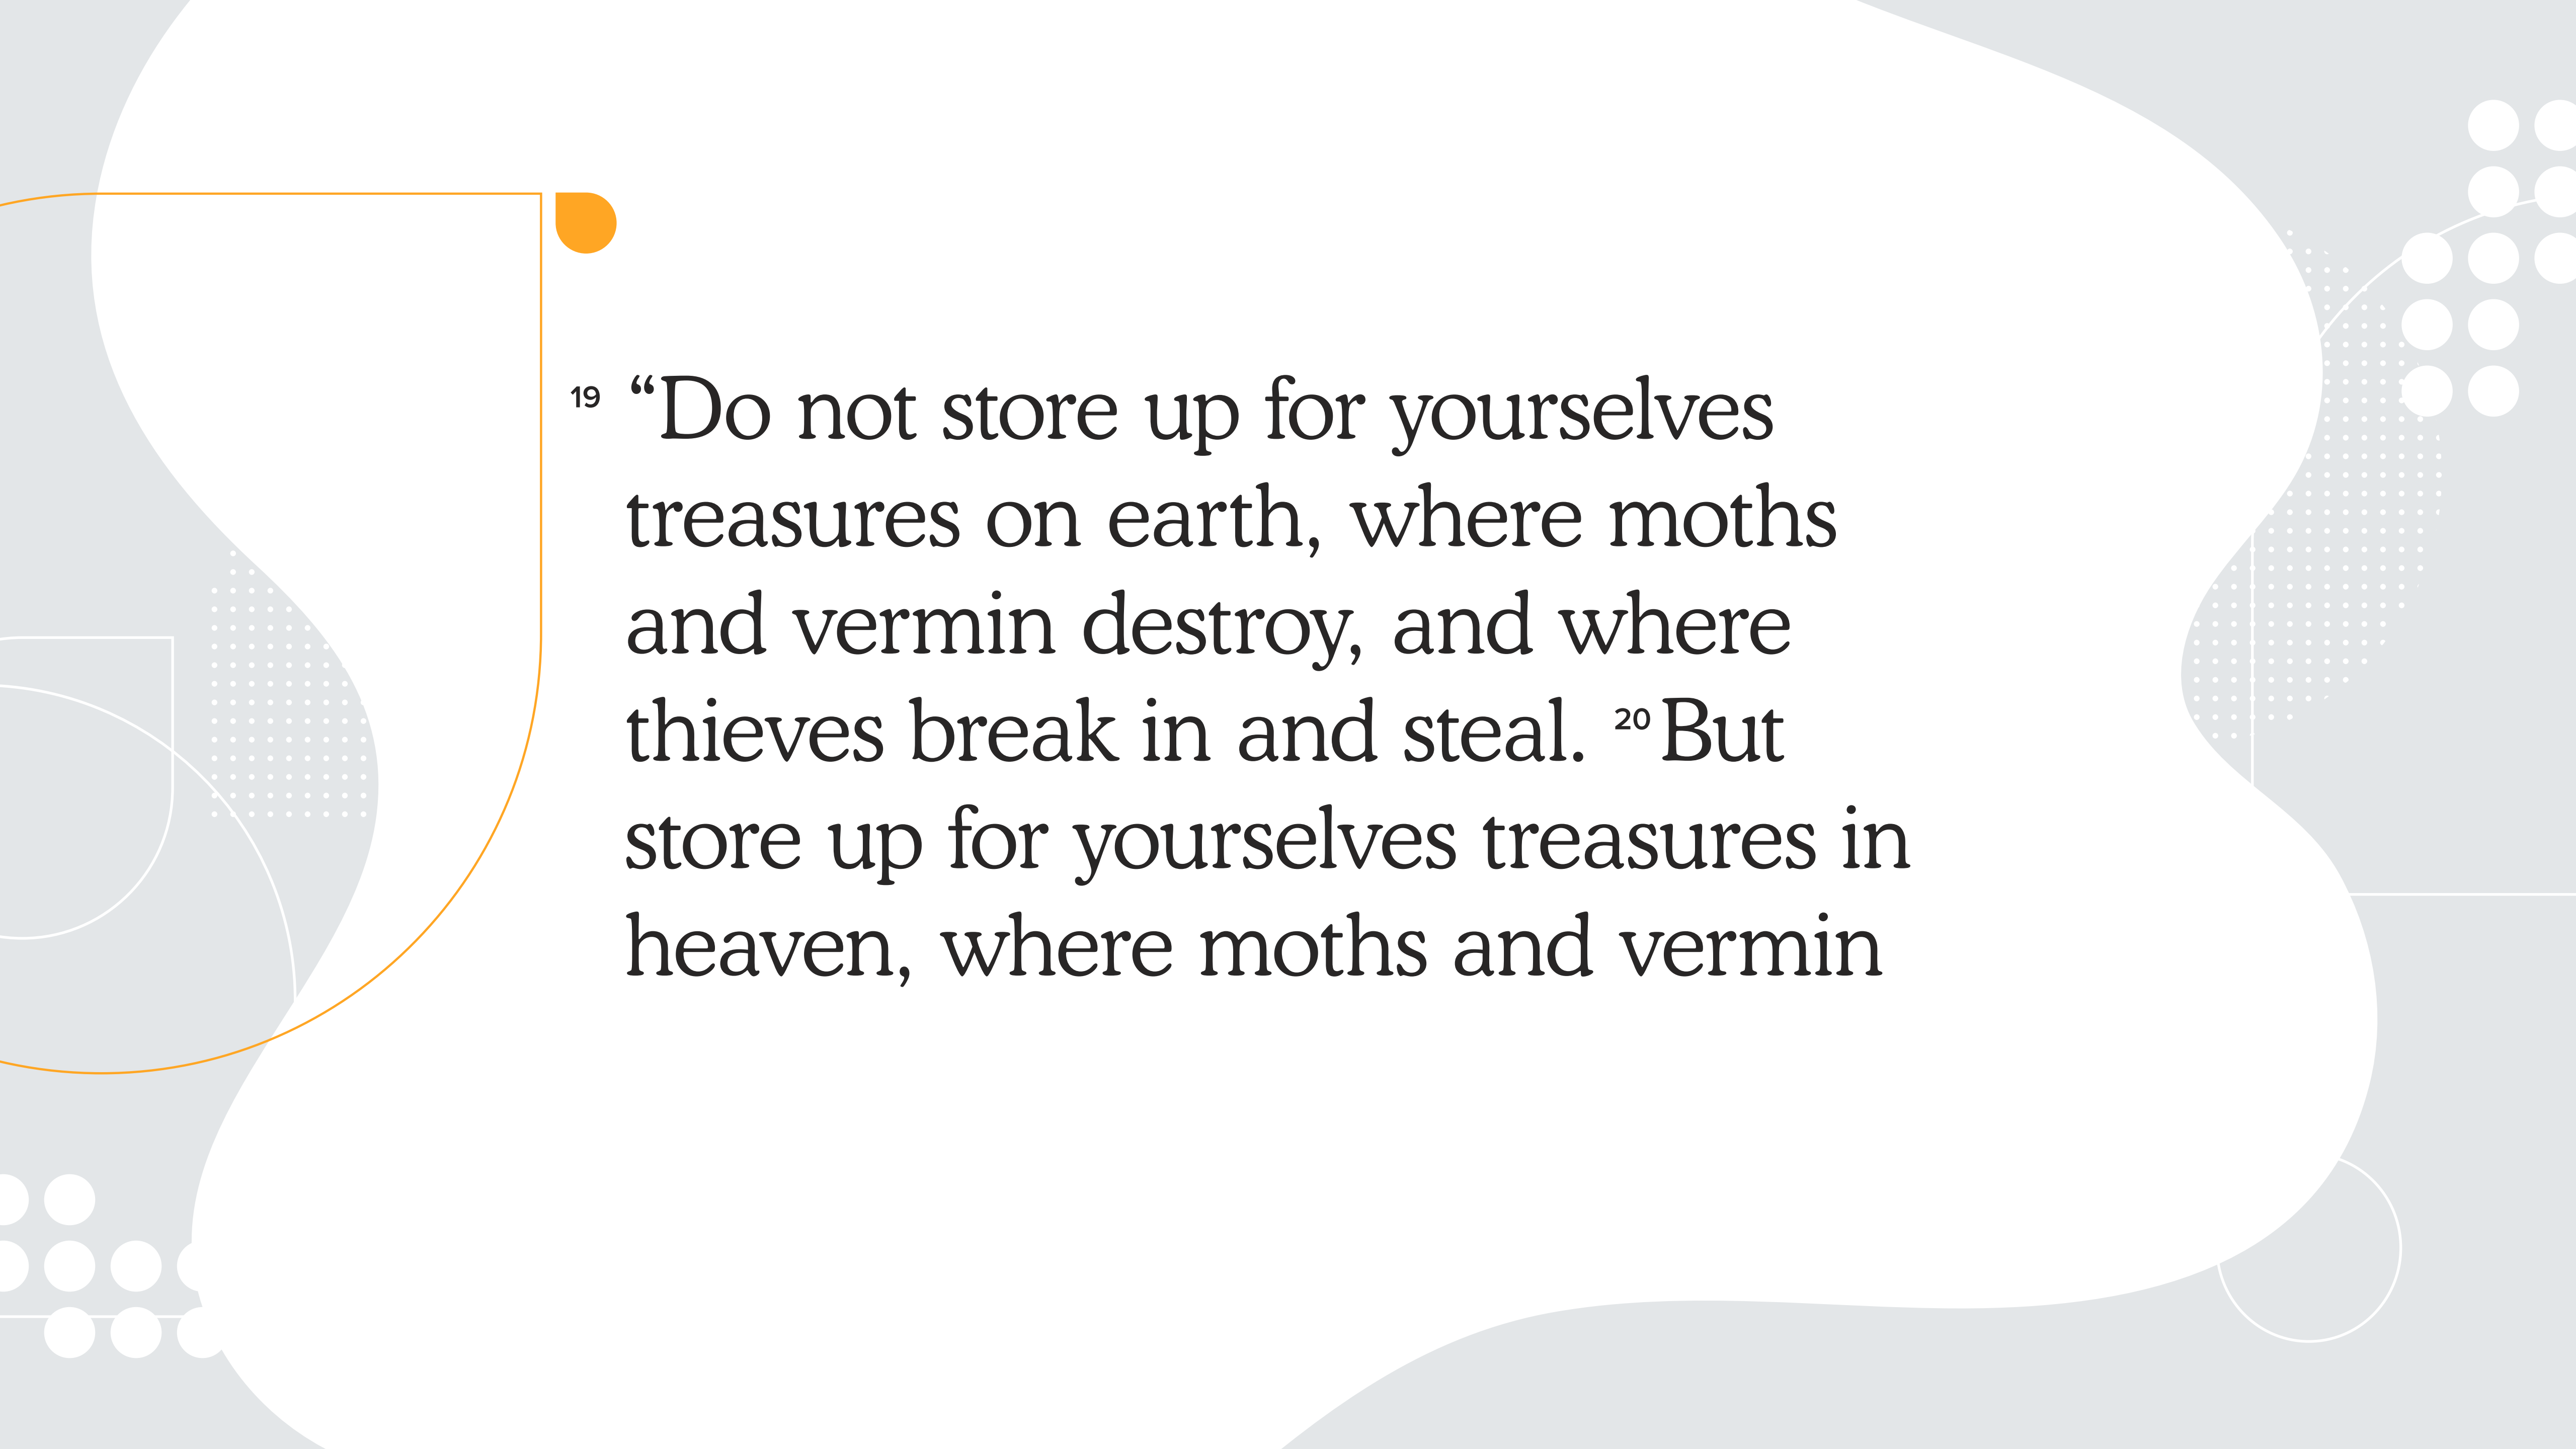

⁵ And they exceeded our expectations: They gave themselves first of all to the Lord, and then by the will of God also to us.

II CORINTHIANS 8:1-5

²⁵ “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes?”

²⁶ Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they?

MATTHEW 6:25,26

The background features a light gray base with several large, overlapping white and light gray organic shapes. On the left, a thin orange line forms a partial frame around the text area, ending in a solid orange circle. On the right, there are clusters of white circles of varying sizes, some arranged in a grid and others in a more scattered pattern. The overall aesthetic is clean and modern.

³³ But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

MATTHEW 6:33

° For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you through his poverty might become rich.
